

Oak Lodge: Year 3	Text Driver	Autumn 1	Text Driver	Spring 1	Text Driver	Summer 1
	Journey Author – Aaron Becker 	Story - Character Profile Fiction Purpose: To entertain, to create empathy The purpose is to write some description sentence to show how the girl was feeling as she entered the castle by boat and the guards started to shout at her.	Pebble in my pocket Author – Meredith Hooper 	Retelling of Story Fiction Purpose: to entertain and inform The purpose is to write a recount in first person as the pebble detailing the journey of the pebble from the mountain, its transformation into a pebble and its onward journey to the sea.	The Lost Happy Endings Author – Carol Ann Duffy 	Character Descriptions Fiction Purpose: To compare and contract characters The purpose is to compare and contrast the characters of Jub and the old woman and how they are different from one another.
	Picture Book	Story – Setting Fiction Purpose: To create atmppsphere The purpose is to write a setting description of the magical wood and the castle.	Non-Fiction	Group Poem Poetry Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to use figurative language to compose a poem about the dragonfly following from the page ‘The surface of the earth begins to rise...’ until ‘buzzing insects.’	Picture Book – Fairy Tale	Narrative – Fairy Tale Fiction Purpose: To entertain and to publish a fairy tale book on Book Creator The purpose is to write a fairy tale narrative with a lost unhappy ending. The fairy tale could be a well- known one with an alternative unhappy ending or it could be a made up fairy tale with an unhappy ending. Dialogue should be included.
		Narrative/Story Fiction Purpose: To entertain and publish for display The purpose is to write an ending for the story of Journey describing the hot air balloon and the purple bird. The guards are described as they try to catch the bird, as well as the feelings and the reaction of the bird. The rescue mission of the girl is included and a rhetorical question, leaving a scent of a mystery.		Information Text Non-fiction (Non-Chronological Report) Purpose: To inform and publish The purpose is to write an information leaflet about dragonflies. Sections feature their appearance, their habitat, their prey and predators as well as threats to dragonflies.		History - Discussion Text Non-Fiction Purpose – To inform The purpose is to answer the question “How have the Romans shaped Britain today?”. Information will be conveyed about Roman roads, Hadrian’s Wall, aqueducts and Londinium.

	Text Driver	Autumn 2	Text Driver	Spring 2	Text Driver	Summer 2
	The Thames and Tide Club Author – Katya Balen  Adventure Book	Diary Creative Non-Fiction Purpose: To entertain, the explore feelings The purpose is to write in role as the character of as Clem at the end of the day as she is sitting in the Mudlarking Museum whilst drinking her hot chocolate. What did she notice earlier in the day that is still going on now? She describes the strange events that have happened on the River Thames.	The Iron Man Author – Ted Hughes  Classic Fiction	Formal Persuasive Letter Creative Non-Fiction Purpose: To advise and persuade The purpose is in role as a farmer following the debate of the farmers’ meeting, to write a letter to Hogarth’s father with their advice about what to do with the Iron Man. The letter is written in first person, describing the problem and offering solutions.	Charlotte’s Web Author – E B White  Classic Archaic Text	Setting Description – Barn Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to write a setting description of the barn at the Arables’ farm - with a focus on expanded noun phrases. As a build up to this write, children have drawn the setting and explored the vocabulary from E B White’s description.
		Information Report Non-Fiction Purpose: To inform and forecast The purpose is to write a weather report explaining to the public all the strange weather events that have been happening over the last few days. They should also forecast what the weather will be like over the next few days. Children publish their reports using green screen and making a weather forecast with a map of the UK behind them.		Free Verse Poem Performance Poetry Purpose: To entertain and publish for display/perform The purpose is to create a poem about the Iron Man and the scrapyard. The first verse describes the Iron man himself, the second uses expanded noun phrases, onomatopoeia and alliteration to detail what is in the scrapyard. The third verse describes the iron man in the scrapyard.		Information Text Non-fiction (Non-Chronological Report) Purpose: To inform The purpose is to write an information booklet about the different types of spider and their features. The report will also include a scientific explanation of the life cycles of spiders.
		Advertisement Creative Non-Fiction Purpose: To persuade and grab attention The purpose is to make a tourist advertisement for the Underwater City of London, describing water it looks like and what tourist activities can be partaken in.		News Broadcast Script Non-Fiction Purpose: To report and find out information The purpose is to report on the challenge between the Iron Man and the space monster, as well as interviewing eye witnesses. The iron man will then be interviewed and asked probing questions live on TV to gain his perspective.		Informal Letter Creative Non-Fiction Purpose: To create emotion The purpose is to write a goodbye letter as Wilbur the pig to Charlotte the spider. The letter will detail why and how Charlotte has been such a good friend and to thank her. Wilbur will also speculate about the future and promise to look after Charlotte’s children.