

Oak Lodge: Year 1

	Text Driver	Autumn 1	Text Driver	Spring 1	Text Driver	Summer 1
Oak Lodge: Year 1	After The Fall Author –Dan Santat  Picture Book	Continuous Provision Letter Creative non-fiction Purpose: To say thank you The purpose is for Humpty Dumpty to write a thank you card to all those at the hospital who helped after he fell from the wall. He will also write about his feelings. Speech Bubble Creative non-fiction Purpose: To advise and publish for display The purpose is to write a speech bubble to Humpty Dumpty to advise him whether to have another go at climbing the wall again. Note of Encouragement Creative non-fiction Purpose: To encourage and advise The purpose is to give advice for Humpty to keep on climbing the wall.	The Adventures of Egg-Box Dragon Author – Richard Adams  Picture Book	Instructions Non-fiction Purpose: to explain The purpose is to create a set of instructions to build an egg box dragon. These are then used to design and make an egg box dragon. A set of instructions are also created to make a sandwich for hungry Emma after making the Egg Box Dragon.	The Lonely Beast Author – Chris Judge  Picture Book	Narrative – Story Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to write a further adventure for the Lonely Beast whilst he is on his travels, detailing what happened to him whilst he was underwater.
	Handa’s Surprise Author – Eileen Browne 	Setting Description Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to describe the fruit (after tasting them) from Handa’s basket. The animals are also described.		Poem Poetry Purpose: To entertain and perform Purpose: The purpose is to write a poem in the style of “Beware” by James Carter to describe the egg box dragon e.g. jaw dropper, teeth gnasher etc. Children perform the poem in pairs, each taking a line. Informal Letter Creative non-fiction Purpose: To ask for help The purpose is to write a letter to the egg box dragon introducing who you are and explaining what you have lost. The letter tells us what reward the egg box dragon will receive.	Formal Persuasive Letter Creative non-fiction Purpose: to persuade The purpose is to write a formal letter to the mayor of the city to ask him to let the lonely beast stay in the park. It is pointed out that the beast takes good care of the park and makes it pretty, whilst also pointing out that he has nowhere else to go and has travelled a long way. The letter also appeals to the mayor about kindness.

		Narrative – Story Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to recount and sequence the story of Handa’s Surprise and adapt by choosing your own animal characters to take the fruit from the basket.		Television Interview Script Non Fiction Purpose: To report and find out information Purpose: The purpose is to prepare interview questions for the Egg Box Dragon for when he is interviewed on television. Questions are asked to how he knows where the various lost items are and how does he find them. Narrative – Story Fiction Purpose: To entertain and publish as a zig zag book The purpose is to write a further adventure of the Egg Box Dragon, introducing a new character who has lost something and a new place where it can be located. The story will also include how the Egg Box Dragon gets it back and what reward he receives.		Narrative –Comic Strip Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to write and draw a comic strip, detailing who the lonely beast met on his return journey, what the lonely beast did on his return journey to try and find his family and where he eventually found them. The comic also includes information on how they celebrated his return.
	Text Driver Owl Babies Author – Martin Waddell  Picture Book	Autumn 2 Group Poem Poetry Purpose: To entertain and publish The purpose is to explore the setting of the woodland and how dark it is and the feelings that this evokes. Adjectives are used to describe this and then put together to create a group poem. Letter Creative non-fiction Purpose: To persuade Speech bubbles are written to implore the mother owl to come back to the nest. Character Description Fiction Purpose: To entertain Adjectives are used to describe the owl babies Poster Non-Fiction Purpose: To appeal for information A missing poster is created to find the missing owl. Questions Creative non-fiction Purpose: To find out information	Text Driver Beegu Author – Alexis Deacon  Picture Book	Spring 2 Character Description Fiction Purpose: To find Beegu The purpose is to write a description of the alien using a range of adjectives and naming parts of Beegu’s body as people in the school need to keep a look out for it. Poster with commands Non Fiction Purpose: To instruct and publish The purpose is to write a set of commands using imperative verbs to instruct people what to do if they see or find Beegu and to explain how to look after a cute alien.	Text Driver The Secret of Black Rock Author – Joe Todd Stanton  Picture Book/ Early Graphic Novel	Summer 2 Information test Non Fiction Purpose: To present information The purpose is to research and find out information about fishing communities and the lives of fishermen and fisherwomen. The information also details what it is like to work on a fishing boat. Setting Description Fiction Purpose: To entertain The purpose is to write a setting description of Black Rock based on a story map which has been created. The setting description features a stormy sea around a black rock. Character Profiles Fiction Purpose: To compare and contrast The purpose is to compare and contrast the character of Erin and her mother and to explore the relationship between them.

		Questions are created to ask mummy on her return.
		Retelling/Sequencing Fiction Purpose: To sequence events The story is retold of what animals the mother owl may have met on her journey.		Letter Creative non-fiction Purpose: To communicate Purpose: The purpose is to respond to Beegu’s letter and to give her advice about being lonely.		Shape Poem Poetry Purpose: To explore emotions and publish The purpose is to create a shape poem in the shape of Black Rock. The poem is about all the things are happening to Erin whilst she is in the stormy sea and the emotions she feels.
		Information Booklet Non-fiction Purpose: to inform and publish an information booklet The purpose is to make a non-fiction booklet about owls; their characteristics, habitats, prey and behaviours. Notes are made with bullet points and then published in to a non-fiction booklet.		Poem/Dictionary Fiction Purpose: To entertain and communicate The purpose is to write a nonsense silly rhyming poem in the style of Beegu’s robot talk. Children create their own Beegu dictionary with nonsense Beegu words with their simple rhyming definitions.		Persuasive Poster Creative non-fiction Purpose: to inform and persuade The purpose is to make a poster to show all the damage that humans are currently causes in seas and oceans e.g. plastic pollution and to convey what we can try to do about it.
				Narrative/Story Fiction Purpose: to entertain The purpose is to write their own alien story including a soundscape and an alien profile. The alien will crash in the school playground and go on a similar adventure to Beegu.		Narrative – Story Fiction Purpose: To entertain and make people aware The purpose is to write an alternative story from the perspective of the Black Rock. The story will outline Black Rock being lonely and afraid of the boats and how he feels when boats crash into him, leaving him with scrapes, tangled in nets and rubbish. The story will also outline how he feels when he wakes up and sees Erin and when the diggers come.