

Books to read and read and read again!

The books listed below are books that are suitable for Nursery children and will support your child's early reading journey.

Please read, and read, these books with your child over and over again. Read the story, enjoy the rhyme and talk about what is happening or what might happen next.

Read the books over and over again so that your child is confident in retelling the story to you. Find the new vocabulary and use this in your every day life.

Happy reading!

Michelle Robinson	Jill Murphy	Bill Martin	Sam McBratney	Caryl Hart

Martin Waddell	Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler	Giles Anderson and Guy Parker-Rees	Pam Norfolk	Eileen Browne

Colin McNaughton	Michael Rosen and Helen Oxenbury	Lynley Dodd.	Eric Carle	Janet and John Ahlberg

Anna Dewdney	Nick Inkpen	Sue Hendra	Katerina Kerouli	Jill Murphy

Julia Donaldson and Lydia Monks	Pat Hutchins	Rod Campbell	Lydia Monks	Helen Nicoll

Nursery Rhymes to learn

We also have compiled a list of 'core nursery rhymes' that we would like the children to be familiar with and be able to chant before they leave pre-school.

Nursery rhymes and songs are wonderful! Not just because they are fun and engaging for young children, but because they can make a real difference to children's language and literacy. Research suggests that children who have a good understanding of rhyme do better in their literacy than children who have poor skills in this area.

Please share these nursery rhymes with your child. Make it fun by adding actions and even musical instruments!

- Twinkle, twinkle little star
- Hickory dickory dock
- Jack and Jill
- Hey diddle diddle
- Humpty dumpty
- Incy wincy spider
- Row Row Row a boat
- Mary Mary quite contrary
- I'm a little tea pot
- 3 Blind Mice
- 12345 once I caught a fish alive